HARMONI DALAM KESEDERHANAAN I Made Wianta

Pameran ini menghadirkan perjalanan artistik I Made Wianta (1949–2020), salah satu maestro seni rupa kontemporer Bali yang memiliki posisi penting dalam perkembangan seni rupa Indonesia.

Lahir di Apuan, Tabanan, Bali, Wianta menempuh pendidikan seni di Sekolah Seni Rupa Indonesia pada 1967, kemudian melanjutkan studinya di ISI Yogyakarta. Perjalanannya ke Brussels pada 1975–1977 menjadi salah satu pengalaman penting yang memperluas wawasan dan perkembangan bahasa visualnya. Dari akar tradisi Bali, ia kemudian membangun praktik seni yang terbuka terhadap berbagai pengaruh dan gagasan modern.

Karya Wianta memperlihatkan dialog yang kuat antara tradisi, spiritualitas, alam, dan modernitas. Ia tidak pernah terikat pada satu gaya atau medium. Sepanjang perjalanan kreatifnya, Wianta mengeksplorasi seni lukis tradisional Kamasan, kaligrafi, batik, instalasi, seni pertunjukan, hingga puisi-rupa.

Perjalanan visualnya berkembang melalui berbagai periode: Karangasem, titik atau dot, segitiga, garis, hingga bentuk-bentuk geometris. Perubahan tersebut menunjukkan bagaimana Wianta terus mencari kemungkinan baru dalam menyusun bentuk, warna, tekstur, dan energi di dalam bidang kanvas.

Di balik kesederhanaan titik, garis, bentuk, maupun komposisi geometrisnya, terdapat gagasan yang lebih dalam. Alam semesta, mitologi dan mistisisme Bali, spiritualitas, estetika aksara, energi, hingga persoalan sosial dan lingkungan menjadi bagian dari perjalanan pemikirannya.

Bagi Wianta, bentuk bukan sekadar unsur visual. Titik dapat menjadi energi, garis dapat menjadi gerak, sementara bentuk geometris dapat merepresentasikan keteraturan dan keseimbangan kosmik. Kedekatannya dengan alam juga diterjemahkan melalui bentuk-bentuk organik dan struktur titik yang menjadi salah satu ciri penting dalam perjalanan artistiknya.

Kekuatan Wianta terletak pada kemampuannya menjembatani warisan leluhur dengan bahasa seni modern. Tradisi Bali tidak hadir sebagai sesuatu yang statis, melainkan sebagai sumber energi yang terus ditafsirkan kembali. Dalam karya-karyanya, masa lalu dan masa kini bertemu dalam sebuah bahasa visual yang personal, meditatif, sekaligus universal.

Pameran HARMONY IN SIMPLICITY mengajak kita melihat karya I Made Wianta bukan hanya sebagai objek estetis, tetapi sebagai rekaman perjalanan seorang seniman dalam memahami kehidupan, alam, manusia, dan semesta. Kesederhanaan yang tampak pada titik, garis, warna, dan bentuk justru membuka ruang bagi sesuatu yang lebih luas: harmoni, energi, dan keheningan yang terus bergerak. Warisan artistiknya tetap hidup dan relevan hingga hari ini, menjadikan I Made Wianta sebagai salah satu figur penting dalam sejarah seni rupa Indonesia.

HARMONY IN SIMPLICITY

I Made Wianta

This exhibition presents the artistic journey of I Made Wianta (1949–2020), one of the most influential figures in Balinese contemporary art and an important presence in the development of Indonesian modern and contemporary art.

Born in Apuan, Tabanan, Bali, Wianta began his formal art education at the Indonesian School of Fine Arts in 1967 before continuing his studies at the Indonesian Institute of the Arts in Yogyakarta. His time in Brussels from 1975 to 1977 became an important chapter in his artistic development, broadening his perspective and expanding his visual language.

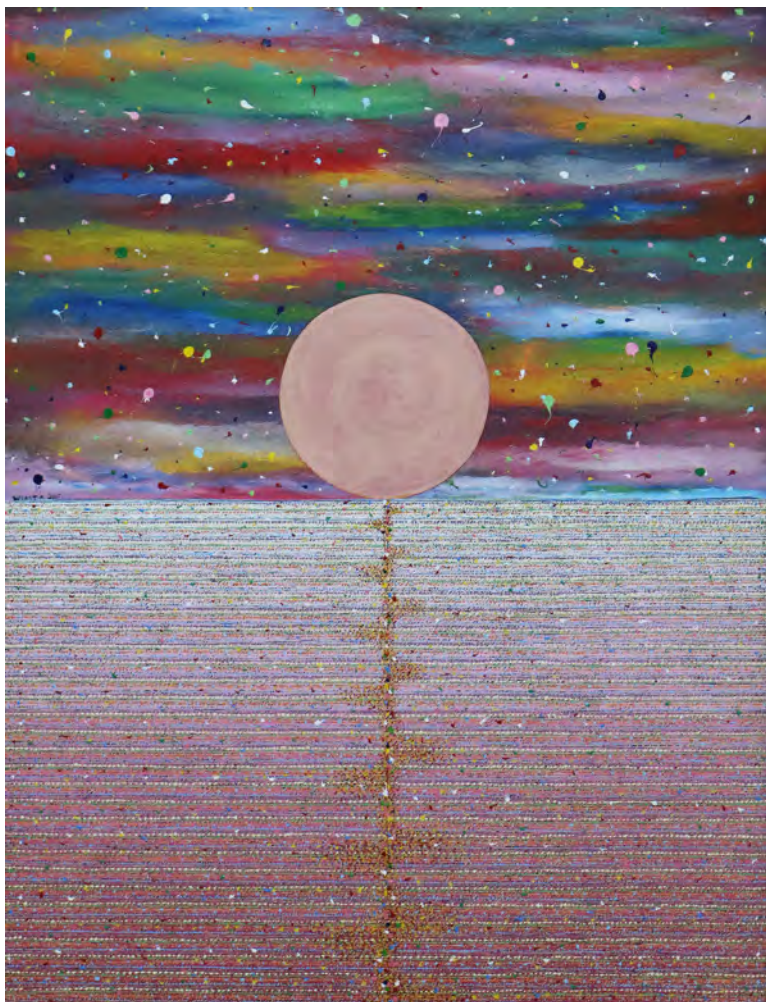

Wianta's work reflects a powerful dialogue between tradition, spirituality, nature, and modernity. He was never confined to a single style or medium. Throughout his career, he explored a wide range of artistic forms, from traditional Kamasan painting, calligraphy, and batik to installation, performance art, and visual poetry. His visual language evolved through various artistic periods, including Karangasem, the Dot Period, triangles, lines, and geometric forms. These transformations reveal Wianta's continuous search for new possibilities in the relationships between form, color, texture, movement, and space.

Behind the apparent simplicity of his dots, lines, forms, and compositions lies a deeper intellectual and spiritual dimension. Balinese mythology and mysticism, spirituality, nature, the aesthetics of script, energy, as well as social and environmental concerns became recurring elements throughout his artistic journey. For Wianta, form was never merely a visual element. A dot could become energy, a line could suggest movement, while geometric forms could represent order, balance, and cosmic harmony. His profound connection with nature was also translated into organic forms and rhythmic structures of dots, which became important characteristics of his artistic vocabulary.

Wianta's strength lies in his ability to bridge ancestral traditions with the language of modern art. Balinese tradition in his work is not presented as something static, but as a living source of energy that can be continuously reinterpreted. In his paintings, the past and the present meet through a visual language that is deeply personal, meditative, and universal.

HARMONY IN SIMPLICITY invites us to experience I Made Wianta's works not merely as aesthetic objects, but as records of an artist's lifelong exploration of life, nature, humanity, and the universe. What appears simple in a dot, a line, a color, or a geometric form opens into something much greater: harmony, energy, and a quiet sense of movement. Although Wianta passed away in Bali in 2020, his artistic legacy continues to resonate. His works remain widely appreciated through exhibitions across Indonesia, affirming his enduring position as one of the significant figures in the history of Indonesian art.
